KOREA IMMIGRATION OFFICE

Legal matters involving foreign nationals often involve multiple areas, including immigration, criminal, divorce, visa, labor, industrial accidents, and refugee matters. These complex cases go beyond legal issues and are closely connected to your ability to stay in Korea. In particular, criminal cases can lead to immigration issues, making early response critical. With specialized experience in foreigner cases, Majung develops integrated strategies that consider both criminal and immigration matters.

We minimize challenges caused by language and institutional differences and pursue practical solutions tailored to each case. We respond promptly and systematically to protect your stay and rights in Korea.

PRACTICE AREAS

01 Immigration

Immigration Offense Reviews, Temporary Releases, Deportation Proceedings

We work to maximize the possibility of maintaining your stay in Korea.

02 Visa

Visa Issuance, Changes / Extensions to Status of Stay, Application Denial

We respond to immigration issues comprehensively to minimize disadvantages.

03 International Divorce

Divorce Proceedings, Public Service, Marriage Annulment, Child Custody

We provide solutions while considering your stable stay in Korea.

04 Criminal Defense

DUI, Sexual Offense, Drug, Voice Phishing, Assault

We manage each case meticulously to minimize its impact on your immigration status.

05 Industrial Accident

Unpaid Wages, Unfair Dismissals, Workplace Accidents

We provide step-by-step support for employee status recognition, industrial accident approval, and compensation claims.

06 Refugee

Refugee Applications, Objections, Refugee Litigations

We seek to protect your rights and improve the possibility of refugee recognition.
